The most important business republicans can possibly have on hand next Tuesday, will be to vote and vote straight.

There will be a flood of poems on the Bartholdi statue, now that the Godess of Liberty stands on the long-delayed pedestal.

The republicans in this campaign have tried to make the canvass as high-toned as their candidates are. The democrats can not say as much about themselves.

If some man who is exceedingly anxious for notoriety wants to be fully satisfied, let him jump from the Bartholdi statue. He will then have as good a shaking up as the democrats will get next Tuesday.

Mr. Blaine's tour through the anthracite region of Pennsylvania is somewhat in the nature of an ovation. At every station he is enthusiastically welcomed, and his remarks received with great applause. Mr. Blaine is of the opinion that General Beaver, the republican nominee for governor, will have a plurality of about 50,000. If Beaver shall be elected it will be a great personal triumph, for, like Governor Rusk, he has the rag tag of all creation against him.

From the Milwaukee Sentinel: "Schilling admits that he was always a republican," says the Madison Democrat. Yet it knows that Schilling only claims that he was once a republican, though he left the republican party as long ago as Woodward did, and many years before the recent editor of the Democrat, who is now Col. Viles' assistant in the postoffice department, and many years before Col. Knight, who is now running the democratic campaign headquarters.

The gun which Colonel Woodward fired kicks backward: "Mr. Woodward, the democratic candidate for governor thinks the republican party ought to be beaten in the election, because in 1864 it passed a measure (with the consent of every member of congress) to encourage Germans and Irish and Scotch and Norwegians and others to come to America. Nearly four-fifths of the foreign-born citizens of Milwaukee and the state came over under this encouragement."

There is one thing the republicans of Janesville should do in regard to the person who shall be nominated this afternoon for the assembly—they should be enthusiastic in his support. At a time like this there should be perfect harmony and an enthusiastic spirit. If the republicans shall turn out and vote, the republican nominee will be elected. There is no doubt on that point. Let this be done, and Rock county will honor itself by sending a solid republican delegation to the legislature.

Here is one plan of conducting the democratic campaign in New York as given by the Commercial Advertiser: "On last Friday O'Donovan Rossa called pon Mr. Roosevelt and offered to furnish him the hearty support of his pape, and the vote of the secret societies under his control if Mr. Roosevelt would give him two checks, a small one for the cause of Ireland, and a much larger one for the personal use of Mr. Rossa. The check for the cause was to be dated after election, so that Mr. Roosevelt might cancel it if he were not elected, but the check for Rossa, on the contrary, was to be dated properly, so that it could be used at once. Mr. Rossa was shown the door."

The landing of the first ship-load of Mormon converts at the port of Philadelphia, calls to the attention of the public once more the fact that with all that is being done to suppress polygamy, no attempt has yet been made to prevent the increase of the evil by immigration The Mormon missionaries may make as many converts as they please in foreign lands and bring the prospective law breakers into the country by the thousand and there seems to be no way to prevent it. The Mormon organization will see to it that none of their new converts are amenable to the law against the importation of paupers, and as that is the only plan upon which they can be shut out, they are allowed to swell the already too great number of adherents of that miscalled religious body.

The statement that the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was in favor of a prohibition party seems to be disproved by the action of the convention of the Union at Minneapolis. The platform adopted by a practically unanimous vote is prohibitory to the last degree. It declares in favor of a prohibition party, protests against any government toleration or regulation of the liquor traffic, asks the preachers to preach prohibition, declares against the use of fermented wine at the communion table and wants Sunday trains and excursions and Sunday newspapers prohibited. In regard to prohibition, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will see more whisky and beer and more evils resulting therefrom than they do now, if the question is made a political one. A party which works expressly for power and place can never accomplish much good. The Union also declares for the Bible and temperance text books for the schools and the ballot for women. If the last item of the platform's demand were once secured the success of the others might possibly follow. As things look at present it is to be feared that the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is asking for more than it is likely to get for a long time to come.

THE RIGHT KIND OF A PROTECTIONIST.

Governor Rusk has made no set speeches this campaign. He has not discussed the tariff in any of his talks with farmers, mechanics, and others. He has said very little about protection to American industries. But he has done something else which is quite as practical and fully as important to workingmen, as anything any politician could say on the question of protection. The governor has the right kind of protection views, and they are stated in the following brief fashion by the Chippewa Herald:

"He protected the laborers on the Air Line road and compelled the company to put up $75,000 to pay their wages. He protected 1400 laborers while they were at work in the Bay View Iron works. He protected 1200 laborers in the E. P. Allis & Co.'s works. He protected 1200 laborers in the repair shops at Milwaukee. He protected the property of persons in Milwaukee, and did not stop ask whether the owner was a democrat or republican—but they happened to be democrats. He protected the city of Milwaukee from ruin, and did not stop to inquire whether his action would make him one vote or lose him 10,000.

This is the kind of a protectionist Governor Rusk is to the workingmen. He is the best friend the Wisconsin laborers ever had, and the manner in which he protected their interests shows that he is worthy of their support.

THE STATE INSTITUTIONS.

An inventory of the property belonging to the several state institutions has been completed and submitted to the state board of supervision. The following is the valuation of each institution:

|---|---|
| Northern Hospital | $ 824,757 00 |
| State Hospital | 613,859 00 |
| State Prison | 405,033 00 |
| Industrial School for Boys | 288,401 00 |
| School for the Deaf | 224,317 10 |
| School for the Blind | 178,502 00 |
| Total | $2,503,012 00 |

The valuation of state public school property at Sparta has not been included in the foregoing, but a fair estimate will place it at $45,000.

The number of inmates and employes in the institutions are as follows:

| | Inmates. | Employes. |
|---|---|---|
| Northern hospital | 986 | 107 |
| State hospital | 529 | 103 |
| State prison | 415 | 36 |
| Industrial school | 223 | 41 |
| School for the deaf | 160 | 31 |
| School for the blind | 95 | 28 |
| Total | 2,218 | 346 |

The amount of wages paid to the superintendents and employes of the institution for the past year was follows:

|---|---|
| Northern hospital | $ 31,000 |
| State hospital | 30,817 |
| State prison | 18,150 |
| Industrial school | 14,502 |
| School for the deaf | 14,202 |
| School for the blind | 7,296 |

The cost of running the institutions for the year ending September 30, 1886, is given below:

|---|---|
| Northern Hospital | $161,502 |
| State Hospital | 91,078 |
| State Prison | 82,933 |
| Industrial School | 40,826 |
| School for the Deaf | 39,055 |
| School for the Blind | 17,481 |

In the case of the state prison, where the contract labor system is adopted, the net cost of the prison to the state for the past year, will be something under $8,000; the receipts from prison labor, as will be seen from this statement, very nearly paying the entire cost of maintaining the prison. There is also quite a reduction in the cost of running the industrial school for boys by the profits from the boot, shoe and sock departments.

THE SOUTH IN THE UNION ARMY.

According to Felix A. Reeve, a correspondent of the November North American Review, the southern and border slave states furnished over 350,000 white volunteer soldiers for the Union army, in the war of the rebellion, and nearly 100,000 colored troops for the same service.

"Turning first to Delaware, among the old slave states, we learn with amazement that she furnished a larger number of soldiers for the Union army, in proportion to military population, than any other state of the National Union! In 1860 this heroic little state had only about 18,000 white males between the ages of 18 and 45, yet she sent 13,670 men into the Union army, or 75 per cent of her available strength. New Hampshire contributed 54 per cent; Vermont and Massachusetts, 53 each; Maine, 50 each; Maine, 59; Rhode Island, 66; Illinois and Ohio, 69; Kansas, 72; and Indiana, 74. The other border states did almost as creditably. Maryland furnished the Union cause 49 per cent; Kentucky, 44; Missouri, 47; West Virginia, 48; and Tennessee, one of the seceded states, furnished to the Union cause over 35,000 white soldiers."

Mr. Reeve thinks that without the conservative Union element of the southern and border slave states the dismemberment of the Federal Union would have been inevitable: and had it not been for the conservative stand taken by the Union democrats of East Tennessee and other portions of the south at the close of the war, the condition of the ex-Confederates would have been miserable beyond measure. Disfranchised, their property taken, and they themselves pursued as political outlaws and traitors, thousands of those who had but lately been arrayed against them in deadly conflict, stood like a breakwater between them and utter and unutterable ruin, and this, too, without any hope or expectation of reward from any source. Thus it will be seen that these loyal friends of the national government were as generous in peace as they had been brave in battle. The country, therefore, owes much to the Union sentiment at the South, and ex Confederates are under an infinite obligation to the brave an unselfish Unionists who, unable to indorse the proscriptive policy of the dominant majority, met their "enemy in the gates, and, placing themselves in a hopeless minority, advocated their civil and political rights at a time when they were deprived of both."

REASONS FOR REFUSAL.

Why the Knit Goods Men Refuse to Confer with Knights Bailey and McGuire.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Oct. 30.—The Amsterdam Knit Goods Manufacturing association Thursday evening sent the following letter to Messrs. Bailey and McGuire, of the executive board, Knights of Labor:

Our association desires me to state that they will adhere to the decision conveyed to you in their resolution of Oct. 26:

"Resolved, That we, the members of the Knit Goods Manufacturers' association of Amsterdam, are not inclined to treat with any persons with regard to the management of our private business interests, excepting those who are identified with us as partners or employes. We desire to express to you our personal regard and esteem, and wish in no sense to be understood as refusing to personally meet you as individuals, but we can see no good to come from any official meeting as an official action. We have heretofore made a contract with your colleague, Mr. T. B. Barry, which has from time to time been broken, and in fact utterly disregarded by local Knights of Labor. We appealed in our extremity to your honorable national chairman, Mr. Powderly, who, though deprecating the condition of things existing in our city, and condemning the action of our local assemblies and fully sustaining our interpretation of said contract, yet under all these circumstances utterly failed from want of authority or power, to enforce the fulfillment of the same upon the Knights of Labor of this district. Wherefore then should we again agree to or contract with any but our employes, and thus subject ourselves and our industries to further annoyance and interference. Our past experience and the experience of others in similar instances force these conclusions upon us.

OUR GUESTS FROM FRANCE.

A Reception of Business Men—Another Dinner—Illumination Postponed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—At 3 o'clock Friday afternoon the elegant rooms of the chamber of commerce, which were tastefully decorated with the combined colors of France and the United States, were thronged with the distinguished business men of New York. The rooms were to be the scene of a reception to M. de Lesseps, who with his party were momentarily expected. About 4 o'clock the French party arrived, composed of MM. de Lesseps, Bartholdi, Polissier, Spuller, Coudert, Noy, and others. President Brown asked the members and guests to pass through the room from one door out through the other, and as they passed he introduced them to M. de Lesseps who had a friendly greeting for all.

A dinner in honor of the representatives of the French republic was given Friday evening by the Hon. L. P. Morton, ex-minister to France, at his Fifth avenue residence. The members of the delegation were present, and invited to meet them were Senator Evarts, Gen. Schofield, Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, Admiral Luce and Richard Butler.

Count de Lesseps has decided to remain in America another week at the urgent solicitation of many friends. Sunday and Monday next he will spend in Philadelphia, going thence so Washington, where, on Wednesday, he will be presented to the president.

Owing to the continued bad weather, the illumination of the statue of liberty was again postponed Friday evening. The display of fire-works arranged for and under the authority of the American committee having in charge the erection of the statue, and to be given by James Fain, was also postponed.

BLUFFED INTO BUYING.

Western Union Gets Control of the New York Telegraph Conduit.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Mr. Edward Lauterbach, counsel for the construction company that is building the conduit in which the telegraph wires of this city are to be buried, admitted Friday that stockholders of the Western Union Telegraph company have purchased a controlling interest in the construction company. He added that all opposition being now removed, the work would be rapidly completed. He further admitted that the construction company had, as was suspected, been pressed for funds at the time it began work on the conduit. There is little doubt, in fact, that the company has played a bluff game, and though no business men could be induced to put money into its stock, the Western Union has by its boldness in beginning operations been induced to buy it out.

Say It's a Republican Scheme.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—In answer to interrogations sent out by the state Civil Service association to candidates for the legislature, asking them whether or not, if elected, they will favor the extension of the principles of the Pendleton civil service law to state benevolent and penal institutions, answers of an affirmative nature have been received from ten Republican candidates for the senate, twenty-nine Republican candidates for the house. Democrats regard it as a Republican scheme to capture the legislature, and take no notice of the matter except to denounce it.

Pushing a New Southern Railway.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—A contract has been signed by the United States Railroad Construction company of New York to build and equip the Savannah, Dublin & Western railroad from Savannah, Ga., to Macon, Ga., 137 miles, within eight months' time. The branch line of the road, from Macon to Americus, Ga., a distance of ninety miles, will be completed in fourteen months from date, at which time the whole system will be in operation.

REMORSEFUL HANKEY.

THE CONDUCTOR WHOSE NEGLIGENCE CAUSED A HORROR

Shedding Tears at the Thought of His Awful Responsibility—No Trace of the Careless Brakeman—The Death List Not Full Yet—Some More Possible Victims Reported.

PORTAGE, Wis., Oct. 30.—The inquest on the charred remains of the victims of the railroad disaster at East Rio was to have been held Friday morning, but had to be postponed until next Wednesday on account of the absence of several of the jurors, who wanted to be excused, pleading "political business." Most of the officials of the St. Paul railway were present, and did not hesitate to give utterance to their true state of feeling.

Wells, the brakeman who did the careless work, is a man of about fifty years, and for more than twenty years has been in the employ of a southern Dakota road. A few weeks ago he was given a job on the St. Paul road. But little is known of his antecedents. The conductor, Hankey, about whose previous conduct and record all the officials abound in praise, was thought to be on the verge of insanity Thursday night; he rallied, however, and was able to be about Friday morning at Portage. He came to the depot with pale face and firmly pressed mouth. There he attempted to speak to several men of his acquaintance, but they gave evasive answers and turned away from him. The pitiable man then wheeled around and left the platform weeping and crying bitterly. He stoutly asserted again his innocence, and said: "After side-tracking my train I walked ahead and saw that the two switches east, which the limited had to pass first, were set right. I knew Wells to be at the hind end of the train, and naturally supposed that he closed that switch. The limited wasn't in sight yet. I walked back (the distance of the siding is about 1,600 feet) and stopped to talk to my engineer. We stood about 100 feet from Wells. The night was clear and still, and I called out to Wells: 'How about the switch?' And plainly and distinctly came back the answer: 'All right.' I know that I was responsible, and should have convinced myself personally, but then I trusted to a tried and old railroad man."

This statement of the man would go a great ways were it not for the contradictory assertions of some of the trainmen of the "wild" freight and cattle buyer Perkins, from Chicago, who sat in the "wild" caboose. He says: "We hadn't been waiting very long on the spot when we saw the headlight of the limited loom up before us, and simultaneously we heard Wells cry, yea, almost shriek, 'My God, Hankey, I've forgot to close the switch,' and then the awful calamity took place." Wells had not been found up to Friday night. Friday morning a report reached Portage that he had been seen near Pardeeville, eleven miles north of Rio. Search was made, but it resulted in nothing.

A shanty at Rio incloses what is left of the unfortunate victims. The remains, after being dug out during eight hours of persistent toil, were wrapped in white linen and then placed in two canvas bags. The coroner, who is an old man, had no difficulty whatever in carrying them away. A pile of ashes with the wire of a lady's bustle on top of it indicated the spot where the supposed Mrs. Marr breathed her last.

Several trains from Chicago and Milwaukee had to stop at Doylestown, five miles east of Rio, until the wreck had been cleared off, and their passengers, women and children included, walked up to the scene of the disaster and formed a continuous line of procession. The surrounding country also largely contributed to the number of awe-stricken spectators who watched the clearing until darkness set in. Friday morning some people came down from St. Paul. The track has been repaired, but the debris lines the sandy and high embankments for quite a distance. Not a piece of timber of the size of a match has been left: only the iron parts of the five cars—wires, nails, trucks, trusses, wheels and metal—remained to tell a tale with an overwhelming reality. Even the solid and deeply imbeded ties were burned in their resting places. This intense heat explains why no human bones could be found. George Jackson, the porter of the last sleeper, the Powaukee, was hurled from the rear end of the car to the front drawing-room. As a memento of his rapid transit he picked up his left ear, which was torn off when he struck the edge of the drawing-room. The passengers of the front sleeper, Necedah, lost much of their baggage. Bishop Whipple, of Faribault, Minn., and his family lost all their belongings.

Much speculation continues to be indulged in as to the number of persons killed. All notes and statements of different persons compared give it at eighteen. Some days, however, will pass ere an absolute certainty can be arrived at. This is the corrected list of dead and wounded as far as learned: Mother Alexia, superior of the convent of Winona; Sister Alphonso; Sister Dimpsin; Mrs. Conrad Scherer, of Winona; Mrs. Rosina Johns, mother-in-law of Mrs. Scherer; Mrs. Eliza Lowry, daughter of Mrs. Johns; George McNowen, of Mauston, Wis.; J. Tourin (Lincoln), 3 Forty-ninth street, Chicago; Walter Scott; Louis Brinker, of Columbus, Wis.; Emil Woltersdorf, of Columbus; S. Dibble, a commercial traveler, of Chicago; Wallace Stuart, of Columbus; Mrs. George A. Marr, of Houghton, Mich.

Two More Victims of the Disaster.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 30.—Among the passengers supposed to be on the west bound limited which was ditched at East Rio, Wis., were W. H. Seaman and daughter, of Eastport, L. I. Mr. Robinson, an engineer in the employ of Hetfield & Ducker, of Fulton street, said to a reporter: "Mr. Seaman is my sister's husband. He left here on Tuesday with his daughter to visit friends in Minnesota, and before leaving he promised to write us on the way. He timed his departure to take the ill-fated train, and, in the absence of any particulars, I am afraid he and his daughter are among the dead or injured."

Another Possible Victim.

STILLWATER, Minn., Oct. 30.—It is thought that Mrs. Peter B. Lutz, of this place, was one of the victims. She left Reading, Pa., Tuesday, and would have ordinarily reached Chicago just in time for that train. Mr. Lutz telegraphed to Milwaukee Friday. Not getting any information he left in the afternoon for the scene of the accident. Mrs. Lutz did not travel by sleeper.

Made Him Swallow His Lie.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—Le Mondo recently published a slanderous article attacking Dr. Herz, a wealthy American resident of Paris, charging him with being bankrupt and acting as a Prussian spy. Dr. Herz sent seconds to the writer of the article, demanding satisfaction. The writer now apologizes and Dr. Herz declares himself satisfied.

Striking for Ten Hours.

OAKLAND, Me., Oct. 30.—There is a strike at the Cascade woolen mills. The spinners and weavers ask to have the ten hour system and bi-weekly payments. The spinners want increased pay.

Judge of a government by the men it produces. Judge of a man by his deeds, a tree by its fruit, a medicine by its results. Time tried and true is Dr. Bigelow's Cough Cure, which contains the good qualities of all the best cough remedies without the defects of any of them. A safe and speedy remedy for coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. Sold by Prentice & Evenson, in fifty cent and dollar bottles. Healing to the lungs. Safe and pleasant for children.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

Valentines' School of Telegraphy!

Offers to all who are desirous of acquiring a profitable trade, thorough instruction, and through its connections with RAILROADS and TELEGRAPH COMPANIES, immediate employment for its graduates, where promotion is only limited by merit. The following letter is from a former resident of Lima, Rock county. Since it was written we have sent Mr. Teetshorn about thirty more operators.

GREEN BAY, WINONA & ST. PAUL RAILROAD
Train Dispatcher's Office,
GREEN BAY Wis., Sept. 22, 1885.

Valentine Bros.:

DEAR SIRS: In reply to yours of the 16th inst., would say that during the past ten years this company has employed about 150 of your graduates. About thirty-five of them are now in its employ as agents and operator, giving good satisfaction, the others have left us at different times to accept positions on other railroads. We shall continue to send to you for operators when ever we need them. In view of the certainty of a great revival of railroad building in 1886, I know of no business which offers equal opportunities for advancement. Being myself a graduate of your school, I heartily recommend it to all who may wish to learn telegraphy

Yours truly,
F. E. TEETSHORN, Chief Train Dispatcher.

An examination of our school will convince one that our course of instruction is far more valuable than a commercial college course, because we teach our students a trade and then place where they have every opportunity to work their way upward. We have supplied more than a thousand operators for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and as many more for different Railroad Companies. Call and see us or write for our circulars.

TRIANGULAR POLITICS

AS ILLUSTRATED BY THE FIGHT IN NEW YORK CITY.

Powderly to Take a Hand for George—A Busy Day for Roosevelt—Hewitt Anything but Idle—Rossa's Alleged Offer—Hill Operating Against Blaine—Political Miscellany.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Mr. Powderly has written Henry George that he will speak in New York next Monday night for the labor candidate. Mr. George has accordingly engaged the Academy of Music for that purpose, and preparations are being made to have a great demonstration. The object in Mr. Powderly's coming is to disprove the stories circulated by Mr. George's opponents that the Knights of Labor were not heartily in favor of his candidacy for mayor.

Mr. George addressed a large meeting of cigarmakers Friday afternoon at Liberty street and Maiden lane. Mr. George has forwarded a check for a liberal amount to the widow of John McKegney, who was killed by a ruffian named McGrath for declaring himself a supporter of George.

In reply to the letters of Mgr. Preston and Father Dacey, Mr. George said:

"Fathers Preston and Dacey do not speak for the Catholic people of this city. They are only two of the clergy. Are their opinions worth more—or as much—as those combined of Rev. Dr. McGlynn, of St. Stephens; Rev. H. C. McDowell, of St. Agnes; Rev. Father Phelan, of St. Cecilia; Rev. J. P. McCarthy, and a dozen more that I could name?"

Mr. John Mackin, chairman of the organized labor campaign committee, said the supporters of Mr. George would support Democrats for the rest of the ticket. The tickets printed in the George interest all have Judge Peckham's name upon them for appeals judge, but are divided between the parties as to the other candidates. A large number of out-door and in-doors campaign meetings were held Friday evening.

Mr. Roosevelt, after a busy day at headquarters, where the callers were remarkable both as to quality and number, started out for hard evening's work. He first addressed a large audience of colored voters at the Grand Opera house. Next he went to Concordia hall in the Eighth district and made a brief speech. From here he proceeded to the hall at 208 Third avenue, where he spoke to an earnest crowd of east-siders. A few moments later he was in a special locomotive speeding up to Tremont, where he was the principal speaker at a meeting in Ituer's hall. Returning on the same locomotive he hurried from the Grand Central station to make his last speech for the evening at the Cafe Lenox, Third avenue and Seventy-second street. There were several large Republican ratification meetings in different parts of the city which Mr. Roosevelt could not find time to attend.

Meanwhile the Democratic candidate, Mr. Hewitt, was fully as busy as his two rivals. During the day he had received reports from his managers indicating that a thorough canvass of the manufactories and workshops of the city had revealed the fact that the George boom is petering out. It was claimed that the working people in these establishments were very strongly Democratic. There were a great many callers upon Mr. Hewitt, and all assured him of success. There was a large Hewitt meeting Friday evening at the Cooper Union under the auspices of the German-American Citizens' association. The big hall was crowded, and speeches by Carl Schurz; ex Governor Salomon, of Wisconsin; Sigamund Kaufmann and others were warmly applauded. Another mass-meeting at Steinway hall, called by the Business Men's Municipal association, was addressed by Mr. Hewitt himself and by Frederick R. Coudert, E. Ellery Anderson, Algernon S. Sullivan, and other Democratic leaders. Mr. J. Edward Simmons, president of the board of education, and who withdrew from the candidacy for mayor in favor of Mr. Hewitt, presided over the meeting. Other Hewitt meetings were held in the different districts of the city.

The story of O'Donovan Rossa offering his support to Mr. Roosevelt in consideration of a check for a goodly sum, is accepted as true, and Rossa is made the subject of many uncomplimentary remarks by members of both parties. Mr. Roosevelt ignored the offer, and nobody seems to think Rossa's support would be of much value to any candidate. The story is to the effect that Rossa wanted Roosevelt to give him two checks—one for a comparatively small amount for Irish cause, to be dated after the election and cancelled if Roosevelt was beaten, and the other for a much larger amount for Rossa personally and to be good for the cash under any circumstances.

GOV. HILL FOLLOWS BLAINE.

The New York Executive Goes to Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—Governor Hill, of New York, Col. M. C. Rice, his private secretary, and Alfred C. Chapin, the comptroller of the state of New York, arrived in this city Friday afternoon. The distinguished party were met at the Pennsylvania depot by Chairman Kensel, of the Democratic state committee, and Assistant Postmaster Parker, and immediately driven to the Girard house. At 6 o'clock in the evening Governor Hill was entertained at dinner by Collector Cadwalader. The heads of the federal offices, the state candidates and a few prominent Democrats were also guests of the collector. After dinner the party were escorted to the Academy of Music by the Americus Club.

A large audience had gathered in the Academy to hear the governor and he was enthusiastically received when he made his appearance. In his speech he referred to the predictions of commercial disaster made by the Republicans before the election, which he said had been not only disproved but made ridiculous. If the Democrats had failed to carry out any of their promises it was because they had been hampered by not having full control. If the people of Pennsylvania and New York would now choose Democratic legislatures, a Democratic senate might result, and the policy of the administration might be carried on unhindered.

In discussing the issues of the day Governor Hill said that Mr. Blaine was now telling the people of this state that he was opposed to any tariff legislation. He wanted the tariff to stand as it was, though the platform of the Republican national convention had distinctly called for a revision and had declared that many inequalities existed. At this point Governor Hill recalled a letter written by Mr. Blaine in 1883 to Charles Emory Smith, of this city, in which he said that under the present system of taxation we have over $100,000,000 yearly surplus, and that the surplus ought to be reduced. "Yet," continued the governor, "Mr. Blaine now opposes revision of the tariff. The trouble with Mr. Blaine is that he writes too many letters. This one that was not burned. [Laughter.] All that we ask," continued the speaker, "is that same revision of the tariff, and we are content to rest with that declaration." The governor proceeded to deny Mr. Blaine's assertions of intimidation of southern negro voters. He declared that they were unsupported by any trustworthy evidence. "Grover Cleveland is the last man to countenance unfairness to the colored people," said Governor Hill, and went on to remind his hearers that the president's appointment of a colored man to office had been rejected by the Republican senate. He added that Mr. Blaine's charge of Democratic use of "loaded dice" in southern politics came with ill-grace from that quarter. Mr. Blaine might better have gone into Rhode Island and told them to remove the political injustice which excludes foreign born citizens from the ballot-box unless they have property.

Governor Hill argued at some length to show that but for the Republicans' refusal to allow reapportionment in Pennsylvania and New York the United States senate would now be Democratic.

POLITICS MAKES NO DIFFERENCE

When Cupid Gets a Show with His Little Bow and Arrow.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 30.—A big sensation is agitating the people of Lagro township, this county. Last summer, Philip Fowley, a well-to-do young farmer, of Hillsboro, Ohio, came here on a visit to his parents. While sojourning in Lagro township he met Miss Alice Hall, a very pretty young lady of 17, daughter of a prominent farmer. Before his departure he proposed marriage and was accepted, but the lady's father, who is a Democrat, objected to her marriage with a Republican, and Fowley returned home disconsolate. When he returned here again this week she consented to elope with him, and meeting him at the depot here Thursday they went to Niles, Mich., and were married. Mr. Hall refused to receive his daughter, and ordered her away from the house, and the couple Friday left for Ohio.

A Dispute About Tickets.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Oct. 30.—The Republican tickets as printed for the election next Tuesday have a line both for and against the constitutional amendment abolishing convict labor. The Democrats have but a line for the amendment. The Republicans state that they have the opinion of leading lawyers that the ticket should be printed with both lines to make it a legal ticket. However, the Labor leaders have issued a manifesto declaring that the Republicans acted in bad faith and warning workingmen to erase the word "against" wherever it appears.

Depends on How the Knights Vote.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct., 30.—The Knights of Labor are busily circulating a hand-bill claiming to show that in the last congress Butterworth and Brown, Republican candidates for congress, either voted against or did not vote at all on all bills in which Knights of Labor were interested. There are 10,000 Knights of Labor who vote in Cincinnati, and the election or defeat of these gentlemen will depend on the effect these circulars may have upon the Knights of Labor.

SURE OF THEIR MAN

Latest of The Express Robbery — The Amount Stolen Stated at $120,000.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 30.—L. C. Weir, manager of the Adams Express company, was seen at a late hour Friday night, and, in reply to questions concerning the recent robbery on the St. Louis & San Francisco road, said: "We are sure of our man." He would say no more, and positively refused to answer any leading questions. There are reports that Fotheringham has confessed that he was one of the guilty parties himself. He has been in charge of detectives ever since the robbery, who have been endeavoring to get a confession from him. It is also stated that the robbery amounted to $120,000 instead of $70,000. The suspicion is expressed that several employes of the express and of the railroad company carefully planned the robbery with the knowledge of Fotheringham and divided the money between them.

A Military Officer's Peculiar Status.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 30.—Gen. Sheridan has set aside the verdict of the court-martial in the case of Capt. Johnson, U. S. A., retired, who was charged with duplicating his pay accounts and acquitted. The record showed that Johnson admitted the execution of two sets of vouchers for his own pay for one month, which vouchers he permitted to pass beyond his control, although he had some private arrangement to protect the government. This private arrangement, Gen. Sheridan says, should not have been recognized, as Johnson's act was inexcusable under any circumstances. The accused is ordered released from arrest and the court-martial dissolved. Gen. Sheridan's action is almost unprecedented, but perfectly legal, while Johnson stands in the same position as before he was tried, and can not be tried again for the offense.

Powderly Prevents a Big Lockout.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—A conference took place Friday afternoon between General Master Workman Powderly and the aid committee of the Philadelphia Manufacturers association. Some days ago the aid committee declared that they would lock out all the mill employes of the different mills unless the difficulties with William P. Troth & Co.'s mill were settled. The facts being laid before Mr. Powderly, that gentleman agreed to order Troth & Co.'s employes to return to work pending arbitration, and did so later in the day. The arbitration will be conducted by Mr. John Lowber Welsh for the manufacturers and Mr. Herbert Welsh for the employes. These gentlemen will select a third referee. About 100,000 mill employes are involved.

Double Collision on the Rail.

BELLOWS FALLS, Vt., Oct. 30.—There was a serious smash-up Friday morning at Gassett's station on the Central Vermont railroad, seventeen miles north of Bellows Falls. The officials are reticent regarding details. Train No. 4, a freight and a passenger combined, leaving here at 4:30 a. m., while stopping at the station was run into by an extra freight following her. Freight train No. 6, leaving here at 6 o'clock, ran into the rear of the extra on a bridge, wrecking all three trains and entirely blockading the track. No one seriously injured.

Says He Was Possessed of a Devil.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Friday morning the Hyde Park police captured and have now in safe keeping the negro who brutally assaulted and robbed Mrs. Mary Dolan and Miss Nora Moran on Sixty-third street last Sunday night. The prisoner has confessed having committed the deed, giving as his only excuse that he was possessed of a devil and did not know at the time the enormity of his crime.

Went Ashore and Got Off Again.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—There was some excitement in shipping circles Friday over the report that the steamship Pavonia of the Cunard line was stuck on High Pine Ledge, near Duxbury, Mass., a dangerous reef. She got off safely however, and arrived at Boston all right. She had 300 passengers on board.

A Case of Destitution in Hungary.

PESTH, Oct. 30.—Thirty poor persons were found by the police Thursday night sleeping in a warm water drain, or sewer. All of them were cared for by the police, who supplied them with clothing.

Disastrous Floods in Italy.

ROME, Oct 30.—Disastrous floods are reported in Ferrara, Maremma, and other parts of north and west Italy, caused by the overflow of the rivers Po and Ombrone and various smaller streams, owing to recent heavy and protracted rains. Great distress prevails among the peasantry in consequence.

They Will Not Impeach the Mayor.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—At a meeting of the special committee of the law committee of councils, to which was referred the question of the impeachment of the mayor, it was agreed to recommend that the resolutions appointing a committee to prepare articles of impeachment be indefinitely postponed.

The Fat Stock Show.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—On Nov. 8 the Fat Stock show will open in the exposition building and continue until the 19th. Prospects are for a first-class exhibition, both of stock and dairy machinery and products. A number of stock and other conventions will take place during the show.

Brace Up.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fidgetty, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whisky, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alterative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at Frank Sherer & Co's. drug store.

INDIAN CIVILIZATION.

COMMISSIONER ATKINS REPORTS ENCOURAGING PROGRESS,

And Advises That the Movement Be Kept Moving—Gossip About the President—Gen. Sheridan Puts a Military Culprit in a Peculiar Position—Manning on Full Duty.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 30.—The annual report of Gen. Atkins, commissioner of Indian affairs, was submitted to the secretary of the interior Friday. At the outset the commissioner refers to and notes unmistakable evidences of progress made by many Indian tribes during the past twelve months. The excellent temper, subordination and general tranquility, which, with two or three exceptions, has everywhere prevailed among the red men, is of itself a most auspicious omen of progress.

The active inquiry among many of the tribes for further knowledge of the arts of agriculture; the growing desire to take lands in severalty; the urgent demand for agricultural implements with modern improvements; the largely increased acreage which the Indians have put to tillage, exceeding that of any preceding year; the unprecedented increase in the number of Indian children who have been enrolled in the schools—these and many other facts fully establish the claim that during the past year the Indian race has taken a firmer step and a grander stride in the great march toward civilization than ever before in the same length of time. Another year's experience and practical trial of this "humanitarian and peace system" only adds, the commissioner says, cumulative testimony to the superiority of its methods of Indian civilization over any other ever yet tried. And all this progress has been made without corresponding increase in expenditures.

The commissioner devotes considerable space to the study of the condition of the five civilized tribes, and the influence of their example upon the semi-civilized and savage tribes. He strongly recommends a division of all the lands in those nations, in severalty, equally among the population, so that members of these tribes who now stand mutely by and see members of their own race occupy and cultivate their lands and pocket the proceeds may be put in actual possession of that which belongs to them. This reform he advises our red brothers in those territories to bring about themselves by passing just laws for the division of lands in severalty, allotting to each member of the tribe his own birthright. He also urges them to change their present form of government, replacing it with a regularly organized territorial form of government, to be admitted at some future time as a state in the Union. There is, he says, a rapidly growing sentiment in favor of such a change, and the sooner it becomes universal the better for all concerned.

Commissioner Atkins presents a number of facts and suggestions in the way of argument against throwing open Oklahoma—surrounded as it is by Indians on three sides—to white settlement. He urges the passage of the general allotment bill which passed the senate at the last session and was favorably reported to the house. As to Indian education he urges a continuance of government support to all the different kinds of schools now in operation. The commissioner repeats his recommendation of last year for an appropriation to enable him to take a census of the Indians, believing a new census would show a decrease in the number of Indians below the number claimed throughout the the country, or at least at several of the agencies, and ultimately result in a great saving in redundant rations now issued at these agencies.

Has Nothing to Do with the Case

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 30.—A report that the president does not intend to go home to Buffalo to vote at the November election, has given rise to considerable comment, his absence being interpreted as a desire not to support Mr. Rogers, the nominee for congress, on the ground that he is not in accord with the administration because of his failure to be appointed public printer. Col. Lamont, in conversation on the subject, said that the president at no time had any intention of going to Buffalo this year to vote, and that Mr. Rogers' nomination had nothing to do with his decision. "In fact," he added, "I don't believe the president yet knows that Mr. Rogers has been nominated."

An Extra Meeting at Ivy City.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 30.—The executive committee of the National Jockey club has decided to have an extra meeting at Ivy City, and on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday the many noted racers at the track will contend for the liberal purses offered. On Wednesday a special feature will be introduced in the shape of a match race between Volante, the Bard, Millie and Elkwood. The entrance money will be $150 each, and the club to anp $1,500; one mile and one-fourth.

The President's Unpartisan Policy.

WASHINGTON, CITY, Oct. 30.—At the executive mansion, it is stated that there is no authority for the announcement that the president will make no more appointments until after the elections for fear of appearing to interfere improperly in local politics. He will decline, however, to lend himself to schemes for affecting the elections, and will not accept a sufficient reason for an appointment at this time the fact that it may be of service to candidates for election.

Manning Goes on Full Duty.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 30.—Secretary Manning went on full duty at the treasury department Friday, thus relieving Assistant Secretary Fairchild of the responsibility borne by him for the last six months. The secretary signed his name with a stamp, the attorney general having decided that such a signature was legal.

Must Assess the Iron Dry.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 30.—Assistant Secretary Fairchild has decided that collectors of customs shall assess duty upon iron ore after it has been dried at temperature of 200 degrees instead of in the wet condition in which it is imported.

What True Merit Will Do.

The unprecedented sale of Boschee's German Syrup within a few years, has astonished the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by physicians, as it does not dry up a Cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the diseases make their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price, 75 cts., large bottles.

Convenient pleasant, and certain in their results, are Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. Recommended by physicians and endorsed by all who have used them. The best remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, and Constipation. Guaranteed, and sold at 25c. by Prentice & Evenson, O. P. O.

ECZEMA
And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Cured by Cuticura.

ECZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with Cuticura Soap, and a single application of Cuticura, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three doses of Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will very speedily cure Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Lichen, Pruritus, Scald Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly and Pimply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

ECZEMA.

Some five months ago I had the pleasure to inform you of my improvement in the use of the Cuticura Remedies in my case of severe Chronic Eczema Erythematosa, and to day cheerfully confirm all I then said. I consider my cure perfect and complete, and attribute it entirely to your remedies, having used no others.
FERNAN ESENCHAEDO,
3208 Penna Avenue, St Louis Mo.

ECZEMA.

I gratefully acknowledge a cure of Eczema, or Salt Rheum, on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year not able to help myself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced my case hopeless; permanently cured by the Cuticura Remedies.
WILL McDONALD,
2542 Dearborn St. Chicago Ill.

ECZEMA.

I have suffered from the Rheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of Cuticura and four bottles Resolvent have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease.
MR. JOHN THIEL, Wilkesbarre, Penn.

Catharral Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed, to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

Sanford's Radical Cure meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and never failing.

Sanford's Radical cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box of Catharrhal Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Frank Sherer & Co's Drug Store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article, from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

JESUS RISEN.

DR. JOHN HALL'S NOTES ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

Lesson V of the International Series for Sunday, Oct. 31—Golden Text, "The Lord Is Risen Indeed, and Hath Appeared Unto Simon"—Lesson Text, John xx, 1-18.

If the report of any startling occurrence goes to the parties concerned by those who "happen to know," and not by one special messenger, they get their information at various times and in various ways. Some hear soon, some late, some from one party, some from another, some one portion of it, some another. So it was here. Hence four writers, each having his own object in his selection of facts, may easily seem to vary one from the other. Their seeming variations prove that there was no collusion or conspiracy. John is here bent on showing how Mary Magdalen came to be the messenger to confirm the faith of the disciples. Hence the beginning of his narrative.

V. 1. So early in the morning that it was yet dark Mary Magdalen was at the sepulcher, not alone, as the other gospels show, though she speaks only for herself in v. 13. She had been at the cross (John xix, 25). She noticed the stone rolled away by an angel, as Matt. xxviii, 2, describes. But she did not know how it was done, and unprepared like the rest for the resurrection—plainly, as Jesus had foretold it—she felt as the disciples did. So (V. 2) in her eager haste she runs to Peter and John, and in words characteristic of her states the case. He is still her Lord; she has not changed her view of Him from His having died on the cross. She does not feel it necessary to define the door of this second wrong. "They have," his enemies, who crucified him. She (Matt. xxviii, 5) had others with her, but she is singled out, hence, perhaps, "we know not," etc. So in sorrow, helplessness and bereavement the human heart craves sympathy.

V. 3. Peter and John at once went to the sepulchre, accepting her view so far, yet naturally wishing to see for themselves. John was the younger, Peter was the more impulsive. John was first at the door, Peter was first to go into the sepulchre (v. 4). Little things show character.

V. 5. Hence John only stooped down into the opening cut into the rock and saw the linen clothes lying. Yes, there were the garments; the body was not there. So far Mary's account is confirmed.

V. 6. Now Simon Peter comes up, passes on, sees the same thing and more. The napkin (v. 7), which it was the custom, as we see from Lazarus' case (John xi, 44), to bind about the head, was not thrown with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. This implied order, perhaps reverence for all connected with the buried Master, and certainly the feeling of right and time to make all decent. Who had loosed Him and let Him go?

V. 8. One believer gives courage to another. John now enters and sees the same facts and reaches the same conviction. Yes; Jesus' body has been somehow taken away. He believed this, or that Jesus had risen in the true sense

(V. 9), for as yet they knew not, did not understand, his meaning and its fulfillment of Scripture when he spoke of rising from the dead. "Yes," they probably thought, "he when he has founded the kingdom, like David and Solomon, will fall asleep and like others rise again." But he had defined the time—the third day. This they did not take in; they did not have the preparation of mind for it which the Scriptures understood would have given them (Ps. xvi, 10). So it is that the Bible, rightly understood, prepares us to realize the meaning of the facts and statements otherwise dark.

V. 10. There seemed no more to be done. The disciples turned homeward. Not so Mary. Women to this day visit and linger around graves when men are otherwise occupied. She lingered at the tomb weeping. She, too, was moved to look in. To her appeared what the disciples were not permitted to see. The honor was for her. She stooped down, and there were two angels sitting, the one where had been the head and the other where had been the feet of the sacred body (v. 12). Their look and bearing showed what they were according to the traditional and Bible view of the ministering spirits. But she is so absorbed with the thought of Christ that she does not linger upon them. They are calm, at their posts for the time. They have been serving the Lord of angels. They have been permitted to look into the mysteries of redemption. They can report to "principalities and powers in heavenly places" what took place.

V. 13. There is nothing we see disrespectful in "woman." They so address her. They speak in sympathy. Angels have much in common with human believers. We shall be with, and equal to, the angels. They put the question to draw out her mind and to prepare her for the answer. Her reply is as she had spoken to the two disciples. The Gospel of Matt. xxviii, 1-8 having given all this—dwelling on the angel who acted as spokesman—John does not dwell on it, but hastens on to the interview with Jesus himself.

V. 14. Still absorbed in the thought of Jesus, she noticed a man standing, and the gardener being the natural person to look for in the place, and the natural person to do anything in the garden, she set down the words even of Jesus to him (v. 15), and replied accordingly—"Sir, If thou have," etc. Here it is that Jesus speaks her name.

V. 16. The voice is familiar; she remembers its tones. She turns. It is Jesus, her Lord; and "Master!" she calls him, in glad surprise, and probably with a movement toward him, as would be natural in the circumstances.

V. 17. This would imply a lengthened interview, questions, answers, etc., and he tells her that it is not needful or wise to linger over them now, for he is not immediately going. The immediate thing is to relieve the minds of, as he tenderly puts it, "my brethren," and to tell them that the new form of his work, the triumphant part, and the part which also looked to them—namely the giving of the comforter—is close at hand. Again he puts the utmost tenderness into his words—"my Father and your Father," etc. He indicates even here the closeness of union between him and them. How wonderful! not a word of their weakness, not a reproach, not a hint of injured feelings! All is forgiven and forgotten: my God and your God."

V. 18. Mary Magdalen, warned against any show of feeling or delay so produced, immediately does as she is directed. She told the disciples she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her. On the feelings thus called out he does not linger. (See John xxi, 25).

In summing up the practical truth taught in this lesson it is fit to raise such questions as the following:

(1) This day, the finishing in a sense of the new creation, deserves to be remembered. He rose on "the Lord's day." Again and again the risen Saviour appeared to disciples on this day; on the next Lord's day to the eleven; on a later Lord's day sent down the Spirit. No wonder preaching was usual on that day as at Troas (Acts xx, 7), and meetings for worship as we see in I Cor. xvi, 1-2. So believers often are like John (Rev. i, 10), "in the Spirit on the Lord's day."

(2) Why are the little details regarding the garments of the dead and buried, even the napkin, reported? Do they show that this was not a deed of secret plotting, or hurried violence, of stealing?

(3) Why does Mary Magdalen come so prominently forward? Is it meant to show how Christianity gives woman a high place? Has it any lesson of love and faithful adherence to Christ as sure to be acknowledged?

(4) Does the look of quiet and repose and angel attendants give us any idea of death overcome? of the grave as meantime a safe and quiet place for the bodies of saints till their resurrection day?

(5) Is Jesus seen here raised up, certified by God as having paid the debt—for the prison door is opened? And is it for himself only, or for his people also? What is the meaning of "ascend to my Father, and your Father," etc.?

(6) Are the details suggestive of the value of little things? Of the Master's thought of John and of Mary and of the rest? Perhaps of their care in decently burying his body?

(7) And is not the silence suggestive too? Is there a word of these as "holy relics?"—Sunday School World.

Our Population in 1900.

Francis A. Walker, chief of the census of 1880 and boss statistician of the country, estimates that the population of the United States in 1900 will not fall short of 80,000,000.

The Meanest Thing Yet.

Fogg has said the meanest thing any man ever was capable of saying. When Mrs. F. left him alone in the house the other evening she remarked: "You won't be lonely, dear?" "No," he replied. "I sha'n't miss you at all. The parrot, you know, is here."—Boston Transcript.

CONDENSED NEWS.

Almost every newspaper in Berlin is threatened with a strike of compositors in January.

Secretary Manning Friday called in $10,000,000 in 3 per cent. bonds, interest to cease with December.

The marquis of Headford refuses to reduce the rentals on his estates in County Cavan, and the tenants will subscribe a shilling per acre for a defense fund.

Dr. J. M. Tobins, a wealthy citizen of Casey, Ills., has been indicted for throwing vitriol on the dry-goods stock of J. M. Gooch. A suit for damages has also been entered by the merchant.

Leopold Wirth, the Milwaukee distiller, has been placed on the jail limits, on an execution against his body secured by P. D. Armour & Co., of Chicago, in order to collect a judgment for $1,500.

John W. Keyes and other Chicagoans have incorporated a company, with a capital of $30,000, to collect and exhibit articles connected with the person, life, and public services of Abraham Lincoln.

James E. Stuart, of Deer Lodge, M. T., eloped with the daughter of Rev. Dr. McMillan, of Chicago, a pupil at the College of Montana. They were married at Garrison, and returned to receive a serenade.

Commissioner Black desires to correct the general belief that the last congress passed a bill pensioning the veterans of the Mexican war and their widows for mere service. The measure was defeated by the efforts of the younger class of men who served in that campaign.

In a building at Washington occupied by the fish commission a terrible fight took place Friday between an Arizona lizard and a Florida alligator, which had been thoughtlessly placed together on the stone floor. The latter received a dislocated shoulder and was probably fatally poisoned.

They Will not Consolidate.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—A special to The Post from Boston says: Despite rumors which have been widely circulated that the Chicago, Burlington & Northern, and the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railroads are to consolidate, the best of authority is given for denying the story. The relations of the Northern to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy are such as to make such a consolidation out of the question, at least for the next year or so

The New President of the Reading Road.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Austin Corbin, the new president of the Pennsylvania & Reading road, is going to Philadelphia next week to reside permanently. Mr. Corbin promises to save the Reading large sums of money by a system of rigid economy which he will introduce. His first order will be to reduce the force at the main office in Philadelphia from 500 to 250 men. He will also close the free restaurant, which costs the company $20,000 a year.

Sale of a Railway in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The Toledo, Peoria & Western railroad was sold Friday by Master in Chancery H. W. Bishop, of the United States court, for $4,790,000, to John M. Bowers, of New York, attorney for Charles Moran and Thomas Denny, representatives of the first mortgage bondholders' committee. The first mortgage with interest amounts to $5,100,000.

Came Near Being Lynched.

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Oct. 30.—M. Saukop, the Bohemian, who murdered one woman and seriously injured another with an ax in this county several days ago, came near being lynched by an infuriated mob near Shueyville Thursday night. He was brought to the county jail in this city Friday night and locked up to await trial.

The great sources of the extensive curative range of Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic are its great blood purifying qualities and its gentle operative action, thereby removing all restraint from the secretive organs, curing promptly and thoroughly dyspepsia, costiveness, bad breath, piles, pimples, low spirits, sick and nervous headache, ague, malaria, and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. The most delicate stomach accepts it with relish. Price fifty cents, of Prentice & Evenson.

Don't trifle with any Throat or Lung Disease. If you have a Cough or Cold, or the children are threatened with Croup or Whooping Cough, use Acker's English Remedy and prevent further trouble. It is a positive cure, and we guarantee it. Price 10 and 50c.

Scavangers of Importance.

Next to the bowels, or rather in conjunction with them, the kidneys and bladder are the most important scavangers of the system. They purify the blood and carry off its refuse, preventing rheumatism, dropsy, Bright's disease and diabetes by their active, cleansing work. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, when the kidneys evince a tendency to relax the activity of their important function, renews it and thus averts renal maladies, the most difficult to cope with, and which superinduce a frightful loss of bodily tissue, stamina and flesh. When the renal organs exhibit the slightest symptoms of inaction, they should at once receive the needful stimulus from this safest, surest and pleasantest of diuretics. Chills and fever, dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint and debility are also remedied by it.

Still Scooping Cincinnati Crooks.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 30.—Charles Doll was arrested Friday afternoon charged with certifying to a false and fraudulent warrant for $8,000 while a member of the defunct board of public works. He gave bond for $5,000 and was released.

Russian Methods in Bulgaria.

SOFIA, Oct. 30.—The government has issued orders to local authorities to prevent circulation of seditious Russian pamphlets among the soldiers.

Bartholdi's Dakota Namesake.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 30.—A new post-office in Dakota has just been named Bartholdi by the postoffice department.

HEARTLESS CRUELTY

it is to delude a poor sufferer into the belief that some worthless liniment will cure rheumatism and neuralgia. Honesty is the best policy in the manufacture of proprietary articles as in all other matters, and the fact that the proprietors of Athlophoros have never claimed for it even all its merit would warrant has not a little to do with its wonderful popularity, and the thousands of grateful testimonials received by them show that their policy has been wise as well as right.

Experience has amply demonstrated that mere outward applications are worthless. The disease has its seat in the blood, and any remedy to be successful must deal with the obstructive acid which poisons and inflames it.

Athlophoros acts on the blood, muscles and joints directly. It takes the poison out of the blood and carries it out of the system; it invigorates the action of the muscles and limbers the stiffness of the joints. It reaches the liver and kidneys, cleansing them from irritating substances, and, if followed up after the rheumatic conditions cease, it will restore these organs to regularity and health.

Otto Auwers, Watertown, Wis., says: "I have been more or less subject to severe rheumatism for fourteen years. During that time I was never free from the disease until I used Athlophoros. I have been laid up for months at a time; the last attack was four months. I could not assist myself, my wife was obliged to feed me and I had to be lifted in and out of bed. I have spent at least a thousand dollars with nothing but temporary relief. When I used the first bottle of Athlophoros I began to feel relief and when I had finished taking the fourth bottle I was well and have not been troubled with rheumatism since."

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c., Athlophoros Pills are unequaled.

TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

BROWN'S
IRON
—THE BEST TONIC—

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only Iron medicine that is not injurious. It Enriches the Blood, Invigorates the System, Restores Appetite, Aids Digestion

It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do

DR. G. H. BINKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says:
"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action excels all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."

DR. W. N. WATERS, 1219 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the Tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

Briefiets.

—Attend church to-morrow.

—One drunk was captured by the police last night.

The water commissioners will hold a regular meeting on Monday evening.

—There will be seating for 1,500 people at the rink on Sunday evening.

—Attend the exercises at the Riverside Rink to-morrow evening and hear Mr. Johnson's address.

—W. Alex Johnson will throw light on many vexed questions at the rink on Sunday evening.

—There will be sacred music at the rink on Sunday evening. The exercises will commence at 7:30 o'clock.

—The days of excursions are over until next year. Captain Buchholz has the "Enterprise" safely in winter quarters.

—At W. M. Wilkin's saloon to-night choice turkey, fresh cod and other delicacies too numerous to mention—Be sure and come.

—The committee hope to have seats for 1500 persons at the rink on Sunday evening. No admission fee will be charged.

—The Bower City Band has volunteered to be present at the rink to-morrow evening, and will render some choice sacred music.

—Mrs. R. M. Bostwick gave a ladies tea party on Thursday evening and not Mrs. J. M. Bostwick, as stated in last evening's Gazette.

—The exercises at the rink Sunday evening, will be of the deepest interest, and at the same time in accordance with the Sabbath day.

—Mrs. J. G. Alden, mother of Mrs. J. A. Denniston, is in a very critical condition, and serious doubts as to her recovery are entertained by her friends.

—Mrs Harriet Hubbard Ayer's Recamier Cream and all the best face powders, cosmetics and toilet articles, at Prentice & Even's, opposite the postoffice.

—Mrs. B. F. Crossett pleasantly entertained a company of her lady friends at tea yesterday afternoon, at her pleasant home on Madison street in the first ward.

—The common council will hold a regular meeting on Monday evening; that is, provided a quorum appear, which is hardly probable on the eve of election.

—Crystal Temple of Honor No. 32, hold a regular weekly meeting on Monday evening. Business of importance will come before this meeting, and a full and prompt attendance is requested.

—Every one is talking politics to-day, Some enthusiastic democrats—ignorant of the situation—are claiming Vermont. They will be surely disappointed on Tuesday evening next when the returns are announced.

—The members of W. H. Sargent Post. No. 20, G. A. R., will attend the services at the rink to-morrow evening, and will meet at post hall at seven o'clock to-morrow evening, in order to proceed to the rink in a body.

—The good people of the Presbyterian church and society were hospitably entertained last evening, at the residence of Mr. John Airis on North River street. supper was served at 6:30 o'clock, and all enjoyed a pleasant evening.

—Mrs. J. B. Day to now ready to receive pupils who wish thorough, practical work in voice culture and expression by voice and action. Special drill for beginners in following branches: Positions, deep breathings, gymnastics, articulation, pure tone and expression.

—Lappin's hall has been engaged by the republican and democratic committees for Tuesday evening for the purpose of giving the people a comfortable place to gather and hear the election returns. An admission fee of ten cents will be charged at the door.

—W. Alex. Johnson, who is to address the people of Janesville to-morrow evening at the rink, will be here on the six o'clock train. The rooms of the Associated Charities will be open this evening for an informal reception from eight to ten o'clock. All who are interested in our work, and would like to meet Mr. Johnson, are cordially invited.

—A member of the board of water commissioners informed a Gazette reporter this morning, that in case the artesian well, now being drilled on South River street property, proved a success, the water works plant in this city would be completed and in full operation by the first of next July. This will be an interesting item to those parties who have been longing to see the plant completed.

—The name of Ezra F. Kendall is synonomous with mirth and laughter. His appearance in "A Pair of Kids," at Lappin's hall last evening was greeted by an audience that filled every seat in the house and one that came prepared to have a good time. While some of the characters were rather light the play as a whole was a success, and each blast of wit or comical action drew loud applause. Kendall was the same old dried up "Jiles Button" as when he made such a hit in Janesville last winter, and while his support was hardly as good, still no one went away disappointed.

—The funeral of Miss Mary Cullen took place in St. Patrick's church at nine o'clock this morning, and was largely attended. Rev. Father McGinnity conducted the services, and his remarks were very impressive. Deceased was a faithful member of the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Patrick's church and, in accordance with a custom of that society, the remains of their departed friend were tenderly borne from the hearse to the church, and out again, by six of its members, namely: Misses Rose Riley, Hattie Bray, Annie Bray, Tessie Gagen, Mary Rooney and Rose Keenan. Messrs. John Cullen, Charles O'Neil, Johnnie O'Neil, John Grant, Charles O'Neil and John Cullen, acted as regular pall bearers, the interment being in the Catholic cemetery. Thus, another name is added to the list of what is the "common lot of all."

—The Minneapolis Tribune of October 27th, contains the following item of interest to our readers, especially with those acquainted with the bride: "Miss Nettie M. Strunk and James L. Miller were married on Saturday evening, October 23, at the residence of the bride's parents, 909 Fifteenth avenue, the occasion being the 28th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Strunk. The rooms were prettily decorated with autumn leaves and flowers, one corner being especially embowered with evergreen, geranium, climbing vines and smilax, to which place the happy pair, attended by two young ladies, were called by Mendelssohn's Wedding March, rendered by Miss Grace Woodard. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. Hovey in the presence of a large circle of relatives and friends from this city and from abroad, who attested their love, friendship and good will by the presentation of numerous tokens, beautiful, elegant and appropriate.

—The appalling railroad accident near Portage on the night of the 27th inst. will go down in history as one of the most frightful accidents on record. An open switch and broken rail will always contribute to the unsafety of railroad travel, and are causes of disaster to which railway companies are liable at any time, and for which they are frequently not responsible. By far the worst feature of the late catastrophy, was the fire which consumed the unfortunate train with many of its victims. But for this fire the loss of life would have been comparatively light. The fact that very many railway disasters terminate with a similar experience, prompts the thought that something should be done to prevent the recurrence of these terrible hollicausts. The system of steam heat in use by the Pullman and Wagner companies render their cars reasonably safe from fire, in the Portage disaster the "sleepers" ignited by the spread of fire from the forward part of the train; had the baggage, express, and day coach, been heated by steam supplied from the engine and transmitted from car to car through telescope couplings, the danger from fire would have been vastly decreased, if not entirely averted. The time will come when electric light and steam will take the place of oil and coal, and the loss of life in railway accidents will not be augmented by the fire fiend.

OBITUARY.

GERTRUDE MAY COLE,

Aged sixteen years nine months and twenty-four days. At half past one o'clock this morning, in the quiet stillness of the frosty night, the death angel with noiseless tread entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Cole and released from its frail tenament the spirit of their only child, Gertie. In the early part of last winter a severe cold was contracted which speedily developed into consumption, and for a number of months it was apparent to her friends and to Gertie herself, that the end was not far away. Calmly looking forward and patiently waiting for the hour to come, she exhibited a spirit of christian fortitude, denoting a brave and trusting heart, sustained by a sublime faith in the God whom she loved.

During all the weary months of suffering not a murmur escaped her lips but with a thoughtful solicitude for the loving hearts who watched by her bedside, she ever sought to cheer and comfort them. Her life was an inspiration and about its memory clusters a halo of radiance, which will ever be a comforting benediction. Gertie was a member of the Court Street Methodist church and Sabbath school. She enjoyed the confidence and love of a large circle of friends who had learned to appreciate her kindly disposition and many Christian graces. To the home she contributed so much of joy and happiness, sympathy will be directed in the hour of sorrow.

The funeral will occur at the house in the third ward to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. T. DeWitt Peake and Rev. Dr. Hodge, conducting the services.

Winans Nominated.

The democratic assembly convention assembled at the council chamber at two o'clock this afternoon, and after spending some time in perfecting an organization, Hon. John Winans was nominated as the candidate by acclamation. The report of the convention will appear in the Gazette on Monday.

Personal.

—Miss M. L. Soverhill, youngest sister of M. H. Soverhill, arrived in the city on Wednesday to spend a month on her return from Minneapolis to her old home in Newark, N. Y.

Business Education.

A course of business training at Silsbee's college, will qualify a good student to earn from $30 to $50 per month. Its graduates are filling the very best business positions in this city, and there are many more positions yet to fill. The demand for qualified business men is everywhere. The price to be paid is less than you earn in one month, when qualified. Any young person who takes the full course, and graduates at this institution, has a guarantee for good business positions, and a successful business career. Catalogue free.

For bedding or clothing, and especially for blankets and flannels, use Fairbank's soap.

The Republicans.

The republican assembly convention, for the purpose of nominating the next member of the legislature from this district, is in session this afternoon as we go to press.

Arbor Days in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—State Superintendent Holcombe is sending circulars to superintendents, teachers and trustees recommending two arbor days in the state. He says: "Friday afternoon may properly be devoted to this work, and Nov. 19 and April 8 are suggested as the dates this year. Suitable literary exercises should be given by the pupils, with the naming of trees after favorite authors or persons distinguished for services to education."

Banker Dustin's Failure.

LINCOLN, Ills., Oct. 30.—The Dustin bank failure assumes greater proportions as the days pass. Dustin's Montana liabilities now reach $95,000. The liabilities foot up over $200,000 with only $67,000 of assets in sight. The loss to depositors is a cool $100,000, and falls with fearful effect. Dustin is preparing to assign, and it is barely possible he will pay 25 cents on the dollar.

Frost in the Far South.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 30.—White frost is reported all along Mississippi Sound and within ten miles of this city. At Baton Rouge the mercury fell to 40 degrees above zero Thursday morning. There was a killing frost at Jackson, Miss.

Will Probably Write a Book About Us.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Prince Napoleon saw the parade Thursday from his window at the Fifth Avenue hotel, and Friday, like all the rest of the days, he has remained closely in his room, seeing no callers.

For the kitchen or parlor, for laundry or barn, Fairbank's soap is the best.

A DIAMOND FOR ROCKFORD.

Sheriff Hutchins, of that City Wins the Badge at the Angle Worm Club Shoot.

In the shoot for the diamond badge held under the auspices of the Angle Worm club, there were eleven entries. The Freeport man who had challenged F. P. Stannard was sick and unable to come, but under the new rules any who wished were allowed to enter so the purses were quite large. For some reason the scores were uniformly poor, even the highest, that of Sheriff Hutchins, of Rockford, being below the usual standard. The summary is as follows:

Amos Hutchins, therefore, won the badge and first money, C. Cahoon took second money while F. P. Stannard and J. H. Staver, were a tie for third.

The badge was offered by the Freeport Gun club and represents the championship of De Kalb, Boone, Ogle, Stephenson and Winnebago counties, in Illinois, and of Rock county in Wisconsin. The Janesville boys are still confident that their man can win it and another match will probably be shot within a short time.

OUR POOR.

Services at the Riverside Rink on Sunday Evening.

The Janesville Associated Charities, its objects and aims, will be ably and eloquently set forth by the Hon. Alex. W. Johnson, of Chicago, at the rink on Sunday evening, October 31st, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Johnson will tell us what is being done, and how done by similar organization in other cities, all of which will not only be instructive but profitable to us, in the care of our poor.

The various churches in the city are kindly co-operating with the local general organization, and the clergy have promised to be present. The rink has been selected because of its capacity to accommodate all supposed to be interested in the noble work our ladies are engaged in. God bless them and their cause. All in sympathy with God's poor are expected to be present. Admission free.

THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES

The Ward Caucuses—Election of Assembly Delegates.

The democratic ward primaries were held in the several wards of the city last evening and resulted as follows:

FIRST WARD.

The First ward caucus was held at the west side engine house.

A. M. Valentine was chosen chairman and Peter J. Mouat, secretary.

On motion the following delegates were elected by acclamation: Messrs. A. M. Valentine, George G. Sutherland, T. T. Croft, P. J. Mouat and Harvey Smith.

Delegates present were empowered to cast the full vote of the ward.

On motion adjourned.

SECOND WARD.

The democrats of the second ward met at the east side engine house and were called to order by Wm. Smith.

On motion Wm. Smith was elected chairman and J. F. Hutchinson, secretary.

On motion the following delegates were elected by acclamation: Messrs. D. C. Ward, J. F. Hutchinson, John McGinley, Edward Connell and William Smith.

On motion adjourned.

THIRD WARD.

The third ward caucus was held at the municipal court room and was well attended.

Dr J. B. Whiting was elected chairman and J. B. Doe, Jr., was chosen secretary.

On motion the following delegates were elected by acclamation: Messrs. J. A. Blount, J. B. Doe, Jr., Dr. J. B. Whiting, Richard Valentine and James F. Hickey.

Delegates present were empowered to cast the full vote of the ward in case of the absence of any delegate.

On motion adjourned.

FOURTH WARD.

The democrats of the fourth ward met in caucus at the council chamber and were called to order by Dr. O. P. Robinson, who was made chairman. On motion C. L. Clark was elected secretary.

The following were elected delegates to the convention: Dr. O. P. Robinson, Clarence L. Clark, F. M. Scanlan, John R. Ryan, August Lutz.

Delegates present were instructed to cast the full vote in case of absence.

On motion adjourned.

FIFTH WARD.

The fifth ward caucus was held at the Chicago & Northwestern freight depot.

On motion J. B. McLean was elected chairman and Thomas B. Leahey secretary.

The following delegates were elected by acclamation: Messrs. Fred McLean, John Casey, A. O. Wilson, Thomas Leahey and James Madden.

On motion adjourned.

It speaks for itself what a lady said of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup the other day. A single bottle had cured her child of a most dreadful cough. It never fails to give speedy relief and permanent cure.

A DEMOCRATIC TRICK.

A Little Trick of the Democratic Committee Exposed.

[From the Beloit Free Press]

Clarence L. Clark, chairman, for and in behalf of Mr. Daniel Riordan, Mr. David Van Wert, Mr. E. H. Ryan and Mr. John Ward, the gentlemen who compose the Rock county democratic committee, is kindly, and with quite unusual forethought, sending to republicans throughout the county, through the mail, ballots for use on election. One of the two ballots is the regular straight democratic ballot, and the other the regular republican ballot with the exceptions of the name of the democratic candidate for state senator, Thomas Hutson, substituted for the name of the republican candidate A. P. Lovejoy and J. W. Crist, democratic candidate for the assembly in this district, substituted for that of Wm. M. Nye, the republican candidate. This action of the democratic committee is really very kind and thoughtful on their part, and the republicans who are the beneficiaries of their generous act are sincerely grateful. In fact there is only one other deed the democratic committee could have performed in this connection that could possibly have made them more grateful, and that would have been the enclosing of a lead pencil so that the names of Mr. Hutson and Mr. Crist could be readily erased and those of Mr. Lovejoy and Mr. Nye placed where they belong. But this little matter was undoubtedly accidentally overlooked, or very likely, Mr. Clark, who is an intelligent gentleman, was aware that republicans are versed in the use of the lead pencil, and generally carry them about their persons, so it is clear that Mr. Clark and his colleagues meant well—at least, meant well towards Mr. Hutson, and Mr. Crist, whatever their intentions towards the balance of the democratic county candidates, two of whom are of Beloit, whom they seem so ready to knife to advance the interests of their legislative candidates, and of their superior, Mr. Vilas. But this latter consideration, however, is of importance only to those candidates the success of whose candidacy the committee evidently care so little about.

Accompanying the ballots is a circular letter devoted to "Taxation," and dwells specially upon the measure passed by the legislature of 1885 which levies a tax of one mill on a dollar for school purposes. It was not necessary that the democratic committee should be to the trouble of calling the attention of the republicans of Rock county to the measure. They were already familiar with its provisions and its practical operation. What the committee might have done, however, but which it didn't, was to have given the information that the bill was rushed through the legislature during the closing hours of the session, and that democratic and republican members alike voted for it! But the committee didn't tell that, as they might have done and told the truth. That this democratic committee should condemn any and every measure designed to further and strengthen our common school system is not to be wondered at, but that it should seek to prejudice Rock county republicans—to whom the common school system of this country is the very foundation of national perpetuity and prosperity—against the legitimate support and maintainance of that system, is sublimely impudent, or else ridiculously stupid, on the part of that committee.

However, republicans, one and all, gratefully acknowledge the attentions shown them by Mr. Clark, chairman, and assure him, that while they have no doubt Mr. Hutson and Mr. Crist have pledged themselves, in case they should be elected, to vote for the repeal of this bill, or for any measure designed to curtail and abridge the operations of our common school system, and for any other democratic scheme, even to that of electing Vilas to the United States senate,—they yet have full confidence in the intelligence and integrity of the republican legislative candidates, and of their ability to faithfully and fully represent the sentiments and wishes of the republicans of Rock county in either and both branches of the legislature. Again, Mr. Chairman, thanks, but what a waste of one-cent postage cents! And how more than kind of the other democratic candidates to thus contribute to their own defeat.

WISCONSIN NEWS.

Items of Interest from Various Points in the State.

The managers of the Milwaukee exposition are said to be over $1,000 short in finance.

In La Crosse 5,335 names of the voters have been registered, 959 more than were cast in the city at the last presidential election.

The new gas company at Waukesha commenced furnishing gas Monday night. The people are highly pleased with the illumination.

The last issue of $150,000 of city bonds by Milwaukee do not sell readily. As yet none have been sold, the bids being considered too low.

The graded school building at Montford, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning. The loss is about $2,000. There is no clue as to the origin of the flames.

The Catholics of Milwaukee are planning to erect a new orphan asylum. As a step to raise the necessary funds, they decided to hold an orphan's fair at the exposition building the latter part of December. They calculate to make the affair a notable event.

The body of an unknown man, apparently about 40 years old, was found floating in the lake near Sheboygan. There were indications that the body had been in the water for two months. No valuables nor anything to establish the identity of the man were found. The remains were buried at Sheboygan.

Anton Gerdert was arrested in Milwaukee last Sunday on a telegram from Wabasha, Minn., on charge of bigamy and forgery. He has a wife living in Wabasha, whom he deserted last February. Another wife lives in Columbus, O., and a third wife resides somewhere in the northern part of Wisconsin. He confesses to having two wives. Gerdert was soon to be married to a woman living on the south side. He is 40 years of age and a German. The fellow is supposed to have more wives than those indicated.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Giving the Time and Places Where Divine Services Will Be Held on Sunday.

"Thine eyes shall see the king in his beauty."

How dilightful to see him in the hour of desertion. He does not hide himself from us to discourage us, but to cure us of some sin. Then "Restore unto me the joys of thy salvation."

How delightful to see him in the hour of trouble. It is then we are disturbed in purpose and in heart. It is then enemies appear, and friends fail and betray, then how sweet to see him who fails not and who is ever true.

How delightful to see him in the hour of death. There the world rolls away, the flesh fails, the eyes grow dim, yet "the king in his beauty" will stand at your right hand to sustain and comfort you.

"Scarce shall I feel death's cold embrace,
If Christ, the King, be with me."
